

2017 State of the State for WISCONSIN'S CHILDREN

Wisconsin's Governor gives an annual State of the State address to talk about his vision of where Wisconsin stands and the best way to move forward, but why is there such little focus on the well-being of Wisconsin's children?

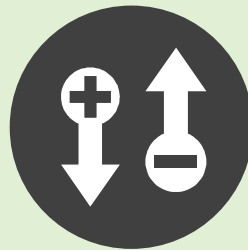

POVERTY

1 out of 6

children in Wisconsin live in poverty. That adds up to more than 200,000 children, nearly twice the population of Green Bay.

DISPARITIES

4 out of 10

Black children in Wisconsin live in poverty. Black children are four times as likely to be poor as white children.

HEALTH

46,000

children in Wisconsin don't have health insurance and lack access to timely care.